

Pest Control Technician - Job Spec

Bored with your current job doing the same things week in and week out, with no end in sight?

If so, have we got a job for you if you are up for a challenge!

We are expanding our services into new fields, which offer much greater variety and job satisfaction.

Of course, there's an element of repetitive work, after all certain pests never change, but there's great scope to learn new skills and earn more too.

That's why we recently introduced a new career structure, and this is a very exciting time within our company.

You are a qualified Pest Control Technician with RSPH Level 2, ready for a quick start covering the area around South East London, up for enhancing your career and relieving the boredom of doing the same old things every day.

The package brings a starting salary of £23k and above depending on the level of experience, expertise and good all-round work ethic, which can rise to £29k with an incentive structure we have in place.

Perkbox benefit package offering a large range of discounts and free products, to include Greggs sausage rolls!

You will be provided all the relevant equipment, uniform, van, phone and fuel card to carry out your day-to-day duties.

If you are interested in finding out more, either drop us an email or if you want to talk in complete confidence, call Neil on 07973 205720.
